COACHING STAFF

Tony Seaman

General Manager

Seaman enters his sixth season as general manager of the Denver Outlaws in 2017, having led the team to two MLL Championships in that span. He joined the Outlaws after spending the previous 28 years coaching at the collegiate level. He currently serves as a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Committee. Through his first five years as the team's general manager, the Outlaw amassed a league-best 49-21 (.700 pct.) record.

In his first four years the Outlaws set a league record for wins in a four-year span and has delivered Denver its first and second MLL Championships.

During his tenure as GM, Denver has outscored opponents 1064-909 with that 155 goal differential leading all clubs by nearly 100 points. He has assembled rosters featuring 28 MLL All Stars and four year-end MLL award winners.

After a disappointing 3-6 start to the 2016 campaign, Seaman orchestrated a blockbuster deal that shipped MLL legend John Grant Jr., to the Ohio Machine in exchange for goaltender Adam Fullerton and Ohio's second-round pick in 2017 collegiate draft.

Following the trade, the Outlaws strung together seven consecutive wins to steal the No. 3 seed in the 2016 playoffs, and eventually beat Grant Jr., and the Machine in the Championship game.

Denver earned the MLL's top playoff seed the first two years under Seaman's leadership, and the No. 2 seed in the 2014 MLL Playoffs.

Seaman engineered a team that set 21 team records and 10 MLL records in 2013 on its way to become the first in MLL history and just the fourth team in North American major pro sports to finish a season undefeated. Denver's 14-0 record set a league mark for most wins in a season.

The 2013 Outlaws squad earned four year-end league awards, which tied the 2004 Philadelphia Barrage for the most individual honors in MLL history. Head Coach Jim Stagnitta, who was hired by Seaman before the 2012 season, earned Coach of the Year, Drew Snider earned Most Improved Player, Jesse Schwartzman was named Goalie of the Year and Lee Zink won the Defenseman of the Year Award.

In his first season overseeing the Outlaws personnel department in 2012, Seaman built a squad that earned the MLL's No. 1 playoff seed after finishing with a league-best 11-3 record and advanced to the MLL Championship Game.

Seaman has made a pair of trades that brought players to Denver who went on to win the league's Most Improved Player of the Year Award with the team.

Seaman dealt for midfielder Jeremy Sieverts prior to the 2012 season. Sieverts, who entered the year with just six career points, earned the league's Most Improved Player Award that year after netting 26 goals with seven assists and seven two-pointers to finish as the league's ninth-leading scorer with 40 points.

Seaman made a deal to acquire Drew Snider, who totaled 12 points as a rookie in 2012 before exploding for a 46-point output and earning the league's Most Improved Player of the Year in 2013.

Seaman also dealt for the fourth overall pick in the 2012 MLL Collegiate Draft, which he used to select attackman Mark Matthews. Matthews emerged as a Rookie of the Year candidate after leading all rookies with four Rookie of the Week honors on his way to scoring 28 points in his rookie campaign.

Seaman engineered a trade for attackman Chris Bocklet before the rookie had played his first MLL contest. Bocklet went on to earn a pair of Rookie of the Week honors and finished the year with 17 goals and three assists in just seven regular season games as a rookie and ranked fourth in the league with seven postseason goals. In 2013, Bocklet was the league's leading goal scorer with 42 goals and tied atop the MLL leaderboard with 55 total points.

Denver's 2012 rookie class assembled by Seaman accounted for 52 goals and 17 assists on the season. Five different rookies scored for the team in 2012 and the rookie class accounted for 20.2 percent of the team's offense.

During his first season as the team's general manager, the Outlaws set franchise records in wins (11), goals (229), assists (116), ground balls (482) and shooting percentage (.348) with the 229 goals representing a single-season MLL record.

Seaman tutored 85 All-Americans during coaching career at the University of Pennsylvania (1983-91), Johns Hopkins University (1991-99) and Towson University (1999-2011). He registered a 247-153 (.618 pct.) career coaching record at the college level and his teams reached the NCAA Tournament 19 times during his career.

He is the only coach to be named the NCAA National Coach of the Year at two different schools (Penn – 1983, '84 and Towson – 2001), and is the only coach in NCAA Division I lacrosse history to lead three different schools to the NCAA tournament (Penn – 6 times, Johns Hopkins – 8 times and Towson – 5 times).

In 1994, Seaman coached the United States National Team in the 1994 ILF World Championships in Manchester, England, leading the U.S. to the gold medal.

Seaman began his coaching career at Lynbrook High School (1972-1981), where he earned two Division IV Nassau County Coach of the Year awards and led the team to the South Shore championship in 1978.

Seaman and his wife, Guri have a daughter, Barb, who played lacrosse at Penn and a son, Greg, who played for Princeton University.

B.J. O'Hara

Head Coach

O'Hara enters his 15th MLL season and 40th overall as a lacrosse coach in 2017. He was appointed to his current position as head coach on Sept. 27, 2013, after serving as an assistant coach for the club from 2012-13.

In his first season as head coach for Denver, O'Hara brought the franchise its first MLL Championship with the Outlaws 12-11 victory over his former team, the Rochester Rattlers.

O'Hara engineered a six-point comeback in the fourth quarter of the title game to become the only head coach in MLL history to win MLL Titles with two different teams (Rochester, 2008).

O'Hara has posted a career record of 255-188 (.576) through the 2016 season, which includes 14 seasons of MLL coaching experience.

O'Hara helped coach a team that set 21 team records and 10 MLL records in 2013 on its way to become the first in MLL history and just the fourth team in North American major pro sports to finish a season undefeated. Denver's 14-0 record set a league mark for most wins in a season.

In his two years as an assistant coach with Denver, the Outlaws posted a league-best 25-3 (.893 pct.) record that represents a league mark for most wins in a two-year span. Denver outscored opponents 465-307 in that time period with that 159 goal differential leading all clubs.

O'Hara began his MLL coaching career with the Rochester Rattlers in 2003 and led the Rattlers to their only Steinfeld Cup (2008), while reaching the MLL semifinals three other seasons ('04, '05, '07). With the Rattlers' move to Toronto, O'Hara was hired as the head coach of the Chicago Machine prior to the 2010 season. After one year in Chicago, the team relocated to Rochester, and added general manager responsibilities to his title.

Prior to joining the professional ranks, O'Hara worked as an assistant coach at Syracuse University for two seasons, helping the school to an NCAA Division I Championship in 2002 and back to the NCAA Semifinals in 2003.

O'Hara's first head-coaching experience came at Dartmouth College, where he coached both men's lacrosse and women's soccer (1986-1990). Before making the move to Dartmouth, he spent five seasons (1982-86) as an assistant lacrosse/soccer coach at Hobart, where the Statesmen earned NCAA Division III Lacrosse Championships each season. He served as an assistant coach at North Carolina State University in 1978-79 before becoming head coach at Alfred University, which was followed by one season as an assistant coach at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

A member of the U.S. Lacrosse Regional Hall of Fame, O'Hara was chosen to represent the MLL in the selection of the 2010 U.S. Men's National Team, which went on to win the gold medal at the 2010 FIL World Championships. From 1994-99, O'Hara was a member of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Committee where he was responsible for championship selection and operation, along with rules advisement for Divisions I, II and III. He served as the President of the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association from 1998-2000.

O'Hara holds a master's degree in educational psychology and counseling from Slippery Rock (Pa.) University. He began his coaching career at West Genesee High School in Camillus, N.Y., where he enjoyed a distinguished lacrosse and soccer career.
